

Teaching Term Position in Religious Studies

Grenfell Campus, Memorial University, is a small (1300+ students) liberal arts and science institution. Grenfell's emphasis is on a small-class environment and teaching excellence in distinctive multi and interdisciplinary degree programs with four-year Bachelor's degrees in Arts, Fine Arts, Science and Nursing. We are currently working to increase enrolments, build new degree programs (including an M.A. in Environmental Policy), acquire new infrastructure and enhance our research profile and activities.

The Division of Arts at Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland invites applications for the following term position beginning January 2, 2012 and ending April 29, 2012. This is a teaching term appointment under which the appointee's duties and responsibilities are restricted to teaching.

Religious Studies: The candidate will be qualified to teach introductory courses in Religious Studies as well as upper level courses from the wide range of those offered in Religious Studies at Memorial University. The candidate will ideally possess a Ph.D. in the appropriate area, but candidates at ABD level will also be considered.

Application deadline: Friday, December 9, 2011

A letter of application along with a curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness and a sample course outline), and the names of three references should be sent to: The Associate Vice-President (Grenfell Campus) Academic, Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Corner Brook, NL, A2H 6P9. Telephone 709-637-6231; Fax 709-637-6218 or email vpoffice@grenfell.mun.ca.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.
