

What will we teach our children about each other?

Isabella Freedman Jewish Retreat Center and Manhattan College Holocaust, Genocide, and Interfaith Education Center invite you to join us at the

Emerging & Aspiring Religious Educators Conference

June 24-27, 2012

Isabella Freedman Jewish Retreat Center in Falls Village, CT

This 2 1/2-day conference brings together aspiring and emerging teachers in the Christian, Jewish, and Muslim faiths to foster relationships among future religious educators and explore existing practices in religious education and potential practices.

Educators and experts are invited to work together to formulate questions and solutions about religion and education in sessions and workshops. Conference participants will also be asked to write a curriculum for religious education.

Free-of-charge to all selected participants in a competitive application process. Conference attendees will only be responsible for their own travel expenses.

All food will be both Kosher and Halal.

For more information and to apply, visit isabellafreedman.org/interfaitheducators or call 800.398.2630 x4

Presented in partnership with Ken Orce, Michael Somoroff, American Jewish Committee, Anti-Defamation League, Common Sense Fund, and New Light Foundation

