

Research in Religious Studies Conference
May 8—9, 2014
University of Calgary Campus

Call For Papers
Deadline for Submissions:
April 4, 2014

The Religious Studies departments at the University of Lethbridge and University of Calgary have partnered up to present the 12th Annual Research in Religious Studies Conference on May 8 - 9, 2014. This is held in association with the 2014 regional meeting of the AAR & SBL (May 9 - 11) taking place on the University of Calgary campus.

The Research in Religious Studies conference provides undergraduate and Masters level students with the opportunity to present papers on the history, belief, practices, cultural contexts, and artistic or literary expressions of any religious traditions. Proposals for papers from any discipline within the academic fields of the humanities and social science are welcome.

Students are encouraged to attend both the AAR/SBL and Research in Religious Studies conference. PhD students can submit presentations to the AAR/SBL conference at <http://pnw-aarsbl.org/>.

Papers will be selected on the basis of abstracts submitted online at: <http://www.uleth.ca/artsci/religious-studies/rels-conference-call-papers-form>. Note: language of our conference is English.
